Presentations under the Small Tent

1:00-2:00 pm – Nature Journaling

with Terra McAulliffe

Join Terra McAulliffe to begin the rewarding exploration, play & creativity of Nature Journaling! You do not need to be an artist or a naturalist, in fact, all ages ready to hold a pencil are welcome. Taking the time to journal enriches experiences, develops observation, curiosity, gratitude, reverence, memory, and appreciation of the natural world.

2:00-3:00 pm – Forgotten Founders

with Dr. Gere Reisinger

The Haudenosaunee history of the council meetings at the Seneca Trail Park site will be discussed. It was here where the first matriarchal democracy was formed as it inspired the founding fathers to adopt it to unite the 13 colonies. The Haudenosaunee plans to join in with the DAR and celebrate America's 250th anniversary in 2026.

3:00-4:00 pm – Tales & Tails

with Rebecca Lesko

Environmental educator Rebecca Lesko will tell Native American Animal Stories and will have a few live reptiles for you to meet.

4:00-5:00 pm – Native Plants for Home Landscapes with the Master Gardeners

Learn how to incorporate native flowers and shrubs in home gardens to support native pollinators.

5:00-6:00 pm – Nature Walk with Rick Koval

Explore Tunkhannock's Riverside Park with naturalist and WNEP Pennsylvania Life personality Rick Koval.
